```
                    ┌─────────────┐
                    │  REST API   │ ┄ ┄ ┄ ┄ ┄ ┄ ┄ ┐
                    │   Server    │                │
                    └─────────────┘                ┆
                          ↕ uses                    ┆ creates
                    ┌─────────────┐                 ┆
                    │             │                 ┆
                    │   Handler   │                 ┆
                    └─────────────┘                 ▼
                          ↕ uses              ┌─────────────┐
  ┌─────────────┐   implements                │  In Memory  │
  │ Persistence │ ◄──────────────             │    Store    │
  │ (interface) │                             └─────────────┘
  └─────────────┘
```

1. The REST Sever unpacks JSON into api structures and delegates calls to a handler.
2. The handler uses a persistence interface to store data
3. The REST server creates a store implementation based on command line arguments and passes it to the handler